CONTRIBUTORS

JAMES DOWNEY has published The Eighteenth-Century Pulpit and is now working on a scholarly edition of the Sermons of Mr. Yorick for the Florida Press edition of Sterne's works. His teaching interests include the eighteenth century, Romantics, and nineteenth century.

WILLIAM E. FREDEMAN's publications include Pre-Raphaelitism: A Bibliocritical Study, an edition of W.M. Rossetti's The P.R.B. Journal, several John Rylands Library monographs on Rossetti and the Pre-Raphaelites, and numerous articles on Victorian art, literature, and publishing history. He is now editing the complete letters of Dante Gabriel Rossetti for the Clarendon Press.

G. D. KILLAM specializes in Commonwealth literature. He has published Africa in English Fiction, The Novels of Chinua Achebe, and several articles on African literature.

H. GRANT SAMPSON's publications include The Anglican Tradition of Eighteenth-Century Verse and several recent articles on a variety of subjects including the relationship between music and literature, satire, the sanctification of Nature, and Thoreau's poetry. His teaching area is the eighteenth century. He is now working on a study of physico-theological verse essays of the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries.

JAMES S. STONE's publications include two articles on Meredith in ESC (I, 4 and II, 1). He is the founding editor of the English Quarterly and is now writing a book on Meredith's politics as seen in his life and his work.
